

Mr. Shawn Howard is the Product Support Analysis lead at the LOGSA Logistics Engineering Center in Huntsville, AL.

He has over 20 years of experience in developing acquisition logistics automation systems, performing analysis to satisfy supportability issues, and addressing master product data requirements for the Army's new ERP.

Prior to joining LOGSA, he worked for Teledyne Brown Engineering and supported ballistic missile defense testing.

He received a degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Alabama – Huntsville.